20TH ANNUAL NHNA COIN & STAMP SHOW
WILL BE APR. 24-25 IN CONCORD, N.H.

Bourse chairman Kenneth Fancher, 14 Rosedale St., Hooksett, N. H. reports that over 30 dealers have reserved tables for the 20th annual coin and stamp show to be held at Concord Community Center, 39 Green St., Concord, back of city hall and police station. A few tables still available may be reserved by calling Ken at 485-5691.

Four fine trophies are offered for exhibits: best numismatic, best philatelic. Best of show, and most popular selected by popular vote. The first three will be awarded by judges, who include David Bowers, ANA vice president, and Michael Rutty. The few entries to date indicate that your chances of winning a trophy are good if you enter an exhibit by calling Fancher to reserve space. Exhibit cases and stamp frames are available.

The show will be open to the public from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. Saturday, and 11 A.M. to 5 P.M. Sunday. There will be a business meeting at 10 AM Sunday and dealers may do business with other dealers from 10 to 11.

Fred McPhail will conduct an auction Saturday evening at 7 P.M. Wooden nickels show the Saint Gaudens $20 chosen because this is our 20th show and the designer was from New Hampshire. Paid up N.H.N.A. members will be admitted free but other adults will pay 50¢. Juniors under 12 are free with adult.

N. H. NUMISMATIC ASSN. WILL HOST
NEW ENGLAND CONVENTION, NOV. 12, 13, & 14

The Hilton-Merrimack Hotel at Exit 6 of Everett Turnpike, Merrimack, N. H. will be the site of the 39th New England Numismatic Association Conference and Convention hosted by N. H. Numismatic Association.

Program planned by NENA President Jim Rolston included educational forums, a youth program, auction, banquet, and specialized group meetings, in addition to a large bourse with outstanding dealers. Noted numismatist Q. David Bowers will be the banquet speaker.

Fine exhibits are traditional at NENA shows and Kenneth Fancher, 14 Rosedale St., Hooksett, N. H. 03106 will be glad to give you information about classes and available show cases, etc. DON'T MISS THIS EVENT!

LIFE MEMBER REPORT

Life memberships in N.H.N.A. increased to 45 with the addition of Salvatore Garofalo, Edward Getz, and Q. David Bowers in recent months, helping to give our organization a firm financial base, and protecting themselves against future increase in membership price.

Charter member George Plestid is now a Senior Life Member. Congratulations! Anyone 75 years old who has been a N.H.N.A. member for 10 years may become a Senior Life Member by notifying Jim Rolston, Box 60, Greenland, N. H. 03840 for free life membership. Others may become life members by paying $1 a year to age 75.

LEON W LANGMAID

Charter member, Leon W. Langmaid, past president of Manchester Numismatic Assn., died Jan. 12 at age 87. He was responsible
